

Bob Kuzelka and Center staff member Erin Schoenberg connect over their shared passion for building vibrant rural communities.

Meet Center Supporter

Bob Kuzelka

of Lincoln, Nebraska

Bob has been involved with the Center for Rural Affairs from day one. As Associate Professor Emeritus of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln School of Natural Resources, Bob continues to make a difference with the causes and organizations close to his heart and his life's work. We are honored Bob chooses to support our mission as a member of our Evergreen Society of recurring donors.

CENTER for RURAL AFFAIRS

OVER

WHAT'S ONE OF YOUR EARLIEST ENGAGEMENTS WITH OUR WORK?

“ In the 1980s, the Center, along with a wide variety of non-traditional family farmer support organizations, held a major international symposium on the tragic wholesale land losses being suffered by family farmers and Indigenous Americans. I was on the planning committee for the symposium.

WHY DO YOU SUPPORT THE CENTER?

“ From its beginnings, the Center has provided advocacy and assistance to the family farmers as they fought against the corporate farming industry. Later, it became involved in family farmland losses and most recently in agricultural environmental energy concerns. ‘Always at the front of the pack.’

HOW DO YOU CHOOSE TO GIVE?

“ Currently, I provide a continuing automatic monthly donation because it best fits my financial situation.
